

Yerevan Orran – 3rd Quarter 2012 Operations Report

---

The report outlines the Yerevan Orran July – September activities in the following sections:

- General Remarks
- Academic Assistance to Children
- Social Services
- Cultural Enrichment and Activities
- Staff/Administration/Meetings

1. GENERAL REMARKS

Throughout the quarter, the total number of the daily beneficiaries at Orran was 147 – 150 as shown in the table below.

	July	August	September
Number of children	95	99	101
Number of elderly	52	50	49
Total number	147	149	150

The following changes took place in the Orran food program for the elderly: three needy elderly were included in the program and three left.

A few changes also occurred in the number of the Orran children. Within the quarter the program engaged twelve more children. All the new children's homes were visited by the Orran team members and the housing conditions were assessed as very bad. Five children left Orran because of different reasons: work, studies, discipline and attendance issues.

2. ACADEMIC ASSISTANCE TO CHILDREN

2.1. Groups and Workshops

In addition to the food program, the Orran children participated in a great number of educational and cultural projects throughout the quarter. In July – September, the Orran academic team helped the kids prepare their school summer home assignments on different disciplines. The children were also actively engaged in the crafts classes and exhibition sales held throughout August. Also, over 40 children participated in the summer camp projects in Tshakhdzor, Hankavan and Sevan.

In August – September, the team prepared for the new academic year. The groups were modified based on the children's needs and ages and the schedule of Orran activities was revised. The teachers also met with parents and discussed the children's overall progress. The table below presents the total number of students in each group and the number of the children participating in the crafts workshops as of September. Starting in July, the Orran handcraft classes were enriched by beading classes.

Throughout August the Orran academic team and children were actively involved in setting up the Orran children's handcrafts shop at Marriott and organizing outdoor exhibition sales. The shop was open at 15:00 – 19:00 on Mondays – Saturdays and six outdoor exhibition sales were held at Marriott entrance. The Orran children not only presented their crafts but also had an opportunity to share their positive experiences with Orran. Here is a link to a video with Orran founder Armine Hovanniasian and Orran child Mari Nikoghosyan talking about Orran and the “Month of Orran at Marriott” activities on CIVILNET TV:

2.2 Volunteers

Throughout the quarter, the Orran educational activities involved also the active engagement of volunteers who helped the children with home assignments and different educational projects. The table below presents the number of volunteers and the total hours of voluntary service performed each month.

	July	August	September
Number of volunteers	10	12	16
Total hours of voluntary service	300	400	300

The students from Gevorkyan Theological Seminary of the Armenian Apostolic Church continued their educational projects for the Orran children. The volunteers also conducted French, English, Russian and German language classes for the children. In addition, a few new projects were initiated by volunteers. For example, Elizabeth Sukiasian from Iran taught Marash needlework to Orran children. The girls attended her classes with great pleasure and one of her students Susanna Petrosyan already came up with a very nice table cloth that will be one of the auction items at Orran fundraising dinner to be held on October 23.

Each month the children were provided with soaps and toothbrush. Also, all the children participating in the summer camp projects received additional personal hygiene packages consisting of 2 towels, a comb, toothpaste, toothbrush, and soap.

5. CULTURAL ENRICHMENT and ACTIVITIES

Throughout the quarter the Orran children enjoyed a number of activities and events. The table below presents a few of them.

July	Throughout July, the children enjoyed a great number of ball games facilitated by volunteers in the yard of Orran.
August	On August 3, 10, 17, 24, 26 and 28 the Orran Middle group students participated in the outdoor exhibition sales where they presented Orran and their handcrafts. Nearly all the children mentioned that it was a highly enjoyable and rewarding experience for them.
	On August 9, Junior I and II groups children together with their teachers and volunteers went to the Water World and had a lot of fun there.
	On August 15, Middle and Senior group children spent the whole day at Water World. The children were accompanied with their teacher and the social worker.
September	On September 1, Junior I and II group students organized and performed a concert program to celebrate the beginning of the new academic year.
	On September 18, Philip Morris delegation visited Orran to launch their grant program for the Orran handcraft workshops. (http://arka.am/en/news/society/philip_morris_gives_5_8_million_drams_to_orran_to_train_children_from_needy_families/) . The delegation members had a tour of the children’s handcrafts workshops and classrooms and were impressed by the Orran children’s achievements.
	On September 27, the Orran children were invited to participate in the Austrian Day at Marriott and taste the big strudel baked at Armenia Marriott Hotel
