3. Cultural Education

3.1. Events

During this six-month period, Orran hosted a number of events. Orran children were also invited to participate in cultural events outside of Orran.

The photos below provide an overview of the events.

On June 22, Orran celebrated Vardavar. The folk group "Vostan" joined us at Orran with beautiful songs and dances. As a tradition of the holiday, children poured out water with rose petals. We thank "Vostan" for a great, memorable day.

On June 22, Orran staff made a working visit to Machanents House Art School in Echmiadzin, conducted a tour and enjoyed a happy, productive day.

From July 1-7, the International Summer Media Camp was held in Kobuleti, Georgia, as part of the "About Me, Capacity and Relationships for Wider Inclusion" project, Six (6) students of the "Journalists' Club" both from Yerevan and Vanadzor and 3 staff members of Orran attended the camp. The program was effective in terms of improving educational and communicative skills. It also offered exciting activities, excursions and learning opportunities.

On the day of cultural presentation, Orran's participants together with "Bridge of Hope" NGO presented videos about Armenia, and sang songs.

During the summer camp, media trainings were held for the children, where the participants learned the process of filming cartoons. The aim was for the participants to conduct various exercises and sports events. Upon returning from the camp, the participants and staff members shared their experience with Orran's children by presenting a film about the Media Camp in Kobuleti. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=tStVHthPhBw>

On July 24, the A.G.B.U. volleyball team from USA visited Orran. They took a tour of Orran, visited the classrooms and the workshops, talked to children and decided to play volleyball with Orran's team.

On July 27, the A.G.B.U team and Orran children played volleyball at Yerevan center garden. Orran's team won 3:1. We thank the A.G.B.U. volleyball team for that wonderful day.

2nd Semester Report, July-December, 2017

In May 2017, Orran organized a mini football charity tournament with different organizations such as Coca-Cola Hellenic Bottling Company Armenia, Fmd K & L Europe, Hsbc Bank Armenia, Rosgosstrakh-Armenia, Armenian Journalists' Team, Zeppelin Armenia Llc, Gnc-Alfa-Rostelekom Armenia, participating in the event. Participants gathered around one idea, to help children in need.

As a wonderful outcome of this charity tournament, Orran's beneficiaries had the opportunity to spend a wonderful day at the "Water World". In August, Orran's 100 beneficiaries, accompanied by their teachers and volunteers, spent an exciting and enjoyable time at Water World. Thanks to all the companies and organizations which participated and provided financial assistance to make our children's summer holiday more memorable.

As every year, September 1st, was very active and exciting. The children shared their happiness and impressions of their first day at school. One of children's favourite company "FROZE" presented delicious ice cream. We would like to thank the head of the company and the employees for making Orran children happy. We would like to also thank "Tashir Group" for the pleasant surprise and for the beautiful gifts for the beginning of the new academic year. We are also grateful to Manoogian-Demirchian Armenian School in California for giving the children new, beautiful shoes. September 1st is also the birthday of Orran's beloved dog Pax, To celebrate this occasion, the kids were treated to a tasty birthday cake.

The event ended with a surprise visit from Santa Claus, warm greetings, and presents from our dear friends Polina Kurtyavkova and Alessandro from the UK. We thank them for giving Orran's children infinite smiles and unforgettable moments.

At the end of the happy day, the children together with Santa cut the Christmas cake and congratulated everyone on the coming New Year and Christmas.

Orran – Yerevan

2nd Semester Report, July-December, 2017

In October, Orran's nurse regularly visited Arabkir Medical Center, where Orran's beneficiary Narek Petrosyan, received medical attention for health issues.

5.2 Psychological Services

During this semester Nana Avagyan, Orran's psychologist conducted individual and group work with the children of middle and senior groups, made preliminary psychological assessments of the new beneficiaries included in the program as well as revised and updated the corresponding information in the beneficiaries' records.

During this six-month period, Orran's psychologist, together with the teachers, conducted a monitoring evaluation of children with mental disabilities and their parents.

As a result, an individual program was developed for those who have behavioral problems and demonstrate uncontrollable behavior in group activities.

Monitoring assessment was conducted with 18 beneficiary students.
